

ANGLIAN POLYMER CLAY GUILD

Clay day 19th May 2013

Venue: Wortham Village Hall (IP22 1PP)

Times: 11am to 3pm

Cost: £3.00 (includes coffee, tea, squash).

General items to bring with you:

- Clay and tools
- Packed lunch

Bring for this meeting (all are optional):

- If you have interesting magazines, books or articles that you would be happy to share for the day feel free to bring them with you.
- An item\items for "show and tell" table plus small name card.
- 'Trash to treasures' – Clay and craft related surplus or unwanted items for sale. Please bag them up if necessary and remember to add a note of the price you want.
- 'Found' items for texturing.

Flower Bead Swap: Our twin guild from Greece have sent their flower beads so if you joined in, you will be receiving 5 beads.

Demo: Sue H will show some techniques for texture plates.

Activity: We need 55 texture plates to send to our American twin guild so we hope you will all enjoy making some and sharing ideas – should be great fun! We have a range of stamps and items that can be shared but if you have anything you would like to bring to this that would be great.

Materials needed:

- Scrap clay

Raffle

Don't forget you can find us:

website at: <http://www.anglianpcg.co.uk>

Facebook page at: <http://www.facebook.com/EastAnglianPolymerClayGuild>

Booking a place: e-mail apcg@live.co.uk